Renford Revelations – Blogs, Articles and Essays

How the 13 Universal Principles Relate to Each Other

The Universal Laws are literally aspects of the Creative Force some call God. The 13 Universal Principles are a series of applications of the Laws to what we can understand as the Creative Process. We can begin to understand a great deal about ourselves and the Creative Process when we identify and verify them in our own life experiences. However, they are not easy to put into words except in the most simplistic terms. The methodology used most frequently by the Masters was little stories or allegories. In the Christian New Testament they are called parables. A brief verbal explanation can only cover one aspect of a Universal Law, and since Universal Being – God is infinite, the explanation will be lacking in terms of being comprehensive. This is a work that must be done by the individual in his process of evolution and unfoldment. What I can share with you here is merely something to help you relate them to your life experiences. This is the most important work you can undertake – the work on Self – a work that has no short cuts. It is one thing to show how any one of the 13 Universal Principles relates to the other 12; It is quite another to show how all 13 Universal Principles are connected to each other. It is the difference between 12 descriptions or verbal illustrations as opposed to 169 explanations. For this reason I propose to take one of these Universal Principles and show the connection to the other 12. Of the 13 Universal Laws the best known is The Universal Law of Attraction. This is due to films like The Secret and What the Bleep. This exercise is designed show how this one Universal Law relates to and is connected to the other 12.

The Universal Law of Attraction, as expressed by the Masters, embodies the truth that we attract to ourselves whatever the inner being requires in the way of experiences that enables us in the process of evolution and unfoldment. With understanding of this principle we know that we attract to ourselves what we focus on, be it spiritual or physical.

The Universal Law of Being relates to the Universal Law of Attraction because the inner-being comes with only its understood life experiences and when the physical body expires it will carry with it only the understood life experiences of this life cycle. It is the part of the composite that knows why it came and its primary purpose. To the degree awareness of who and what we are is recognized and our innate powers of being expanded is the degree to which we are able to utilize our pure potentiality and attract what is needed in his process of evolution and unfoldment.

The Universal Law of Absolute Unity relates to the Universal Law of Attraction in that our perceptions are usually based on general understanding that is dual in nature. Even advanced student on the process of Self-discovery retain vestiges of separateness in their thinking and the average individual sees the world as good versus evil. Our thinking is often fear based and only at times love based. Both types of thinking are creative. One creates constructively and the other destructively. With understanding of the Universal Law of Absolute Unity the Fear based destructive thinking is aborted. We come to awareness that the only power this fear based thinking has is what we give it. This being the case we will attract only what the Love based, focused and constructive thoughts produce.

The Universal Law of Proper Perspective relates to the Universal Law of Attraction in that it is what we perceive and believe that affects what we draw to ourselves in the Universal Law of Attraction. If we see the world as one of chaos and evil, we will attract to ourselves (the inner being will draw) the experience we require to understand this to be inaccurate. We will continue to draw those negative experiences until we recognize that our perspective is clouded and that we are the ones responsible for what we are experiencing. Recognition of individual responsibility is the basis of proper perspective and no one else including God is responsible for what we have and are creating.

The Universal Law of Pure Potentiality is related to the Universal Law of Attraction in that we can never really tap into this power as long as we are looking outside ourselves. If we are looking to a powerful benefactor we call God – outside ourselves; if we have created this separation in our minds; or if we are trying to protect ourselves from an external evil force we call Satan, the Universal Law of Pure Potentiality is blocked and we only attract what we fear. When we recognize that we are pure potentiality we attract this power to our every endeavor. With recognition that we are pure potentiality; that thought creates form and without thought there can be no form, we become fully aware of what we are putting into motion with our thoughts.

The Universal Law of Believing and Knowing relates to the Universal Law of Attraction because it is what we believe and know that will be attracted. Belief and knowledge are two sides of the same coin and are not wholly separate issues as depicted in many religions. One is useless without the other and understanding this means that we can effectively attract the required experiences for the process of evolution and unfoldment.

The connection between the Universal Law of Abundance and the Universal Law of Attraction is very clear when we know that with the Universal Law of Pure Potentiality we create in thought. With understanding of the Universal Law of Believing and Knowing we recognize that the creative process involves holding the form created in thought in a state of believing and knowing. Once created in thought and believed it will take form. It has already been created and will be manifested. The Universal Law of Attraction comes into play as the form held in thought is manifested. The abundance comes into play when the thought form is one of abundance. We can create shortages and poverty just as easily as we can create prosperity and abundance.

The connection between the Universal Law of Relativity and the Universal Law of Attraction is perceived because with our proper perspective there is an avenue open for our understanding to develop. We become aware of the relation between the mind, body and spirit in the composite that we are. “As above – so below” is a very old reference to the relation of dimensions in which we play a part. Lessons are learned by perceptions and our relations to others, our affect on others and our connection as part of the Absolute Unity. If we are fully aware of our composite being, its relation to Universal Being and being as a whole, we know what, why and how to attract what we require in the process of evolution and unfoldment.

The Universal Law of Balance and Equalization relates to the Universal Law of Attraction in that this perfect and cosmic accounting system without fail allows no void to exist. Even in nature a void is abhorred. Balance and harmony is what is going on even if we are attracting negative results due to fear based thinking. These obstacles in life we should love because with proper perspective we realize they are there because of our need to learn something from the process.

The Universal Law of Evolution and Unfoldment relates to the Universal Law of Attraction because it is the learning experience we attract that determines our evolution and unfoldment. The degree of our evolution and unfoldment will determine our thinking and, therefore, what we attract. If our evolution and unfoldment is (in general terms) our reason for being here it follows that if we have proper perspective we will want to attract what we require to facilitate the process.

The Universal Law of Giving and Receiving is related to the Universal Law of Attraction in that it is what we are giving out and giving up that will determine what we attract and usually in multiples of our giving. This principle has to be fully understood to achieve the primary purpose mentioned in the Universal Law of Righteous Self-interest. This Law is integral to what we attract.

The Universal Law of Righteous Self-interest or Primary Purpose is related to the Universal Law of Attraction in that recognition of this principle allows us to attract what is needed to maintain focus, prioritize and in general, disallow others from diverting us from our primary purpose. With full understanding of this Law we will attract with laser-like efficiency what we require in the process of discovering and realizing our primary purpose.

The Universal Law of Love relates to the Universal Law of Attraction because Love is the glue, the unifying element that holds all these Universal Principles together as the process of creation. We attract what we thinking about, what we focus on and visualize. With understanding of Love as the essence of God we know that the polarity – the opposite of Love is Fear and that Fear resides only in our minds and hearts. Fear has no reality space, place or power but what we give it. Love is pervasive, the essence of the Divine Matrix and the place where we live, move and have our being. If God is Love and God is omnipresent, where can the devil be? Where can fear exist? It is banished to the abyss. What is the abyss? It is a bottomless pit. What is a bottomless pit but a place where there is no foundation in reality. Fresh air and sunlight is not a place mold can survive. Like mold, fear will disappear when there is light and love. Even modern science has come to recognize that thought is a very fine form of energy but with infinite potential. The most powerful thought form is that of Love and Love is the unified field for which scientists have been in pursuit.

THE RENFORD AFFIRMATIONS

I know that anything I can conceive and believe I can achieve. Everyday ideas are coming to me. Everyday I gain more confidence because I believe in myself. God dwells in me, and I can access God Power by recognizing my innate powers.

I know that there are certain Universal Principles or Laws upon which all laws, including the laws of physics, rest. I am persistent in my identification of these Laws in my life. I am using my innate powers to come into harmony with these Laws of life. I know that these Laws are the Divine Self- Expression and that through understanding them in my life experiences, I can BE STILL AND KNOW GOD.

I see all problems as challenges that simply require a learning process. I love them because they exist in Divine Love for my benefit. I understand that proper perspective is necessary to begin any work and I'm daily developing the capability to view my life in proper perspective.

The essence of God is in me and I am pure potentiality. Every thought I have creates. I am aware that I can create destructively as easily as I can create constructively; therefore, my every thought is observed as if I were outside looking in. Negative and fearful thoughts are immediately apprehended and brought into the light from the dark corners and hidden caverns of my mind. In their place, creative and constructive thoughts are building the edifice of self-knowledge and understanding, which is my birthright.

I know that there are no limits upon the abundance that is available to me, except those that I place upon myself. I am releasing all thoughts that restrict or limit me. I am attracting all the skills, people and materials that I need to fulfill my primary purpose. These assets and attributes are daily being placed on the infrastructure that I have created in thought. I am manifesting what I have imaged in thought.

I know that I am not alone but part of the absolute unity of all. I know that every action has a reaction. I know that all is connected; therefore, there are always consequences of my thoughts, attitudes and actions. I observe this and daily create an ever-expanding positive force.

I am giving of myself everyday in every way. I share my wealth, time and knowledge, and the cosmos rewards me in multiples of my giving. It is inevitable that I receive when I give, because this is an expression of a Universal Law.

I know that no matter what I give or receive, there is only one essential ingredient, and this ingredient is the makeup of God. IT IS LOVE. Every time I share my knowledge, wealth or time, I am giving packets of LOVE—Packets of God. Love is all that I have been given, and it is all that I can give. I give love freely and daily.

I know where I am, who and what I am, and what I am capable of. I know that my capacity for energetic activity, creative thought and love is endless and that my energy supplier, Universal Being, is infinite. I take responsibility for what I have and will create. I know that what I create in thought, and give the power of emotion to, will be manifested. I AM IN EVERY WAY CREATING MY LIFE! ~ ~ ~

Quote of the Month:

“We have not been more successful in making the teachings of Jesus a practical standard for everyday guidance because we have not understood the laws on which they are based. Jesus would not have put forth a doctrine that was not true and not based on unchanging law.”

Charles Fillmore – Dynamics for living Pg 186

Humor Me! Water to Wine

A trooper pulls over a priest and immediately smells alcohol on his breath. The next thing he notices is an empty wine bottle lying on the passenger seat. “Have you been drinking?” the officer asks. “Just water,” says the priest. “Then why do I smell wine?” The priest looks at the bottle and shouts, “Good Lord! He’s done it again!”

Teutonic Godanum

Everything shifted exponentially for me, hand in hand in my personal healing as well as a Healer and Seer after meeting Greg Rowe and being exposed to the Teutonic Godanum for the first time. A real defining moment when I look back, was when I was in a car accident. I had two broken ribs and torn fascia. My kidney had absorbed the impact as well as my large intestine. The impact had also shifted the left side of my pelvis forward. I was in tremendous pain. I couldn't stand straight and it hurt to breathe. Within one visit Greg Rowe had fixed these issues. I went back one more time for a slight sensation that still needed a little attention with my torn fascia. After that no more issues. Before this accident I had been very curious about Greg's work. I had never met a Tietäjä Shaman and knew nothing about Teutonic Theology. I started observing and assisting with healing sessions any opportunity to learn and I witnessed many miraculous healings. This time the miraculous healing was on me.

My background includes starting my college goals with registered nursing school, working at a hospital for 3 years as a CNA and Hospice for a short stint. I have a long eclectic list of holistic wellness, energy healing modality certifications and shamanic training from respected Medicine people and organizations. Becoming a Usui Reiki Master was the first one. In all my training, certifications, and travels in a wide variety of experiences, I had never seen anything like this. After my healing, I knew I wanted to continue to pursue opportunities to learn from him, learn more about my Teutonic ancestors, and Their rich belief system and traditions.

It's more than a belief or faith in some help coming in the future, but an actual interaction, communication with, a witnessing of the real desire to end suffering has been my experience of the Godanum. The ultimate battle is against suffering. My experience has left me humble and in awe of the benevolence and possibilities of healing. I never set out with the intention to become a Tietäjä priestess. It was to always be open to learning and growing. To show up and say YES I will do my part as a conduit of healing. I just found that through every experience I witnessed the mercifulness and kindness of these Gods and Goddesses. I felt more and more that I resonated with this example of unconditional love. Regardless if the client believes, praises, or worships Them they still put an end to the suffering.

Even in the day and time we live in, I have found myself afraid to acknowledge my experiences with the Nordic Gods and Goddesses. I have been reluctant to always verbalize what I have witnessed out of fear of persecution. Their comforting, patient presence and guidance is still available as I continue to release and heal my own internal fears and suffering as well.

There is so much purposeful misinterpretation and false information to cause fear within those of us brought up in a strict Christian belief system. An example of a misinterpretation in Teutonic Theology is Goddess Louhi. To do a quick google search you'll find the words "evil witch" and awful scary pictures. I have seen her many times and this is not the reality at all. I have observed her repeatedly swirl a magical dusting light around a client shifting them into a higher consciousness bringing a deep relaxation that allows for release of suffering. She opens a doorway for pain to be released in the most gentle and magical way. She is beautiful. I see her as the color of indigo... every shade from deepest indigo to white. She makes me feel safe to explore the other dimensions, the same as being a child and a parent holding your hand to cross the road.

The more I ask for assistance the more I receive. The more I meditate and study the more information is readily available. Their gentle, patient, and kind guidance is constantly available to me. Even though my healing practice has become more validated, I feel I'm just an infant in my progress to become a real Tietaja. I will keep showing up and saying YES.

What Shall I Say?

By Bernard Dozier

We can talk all day and never realize the power of the words we use, and that may be because we don't realize that the English words we use have power because they are power.

If we could display the English language so we could see all the words, it would become apparent that they are "carriers" of power, with some words expressing much more power than most.

We like "power" words, words that stir, stimulate, motivate. We like words that excite, words of promise, hope, cheer, and of life and love. If you want people hanging on your every word, you will pepper your speech with words of warmth, inclusion, reward, and praise.

"Weak" obviously isn't a power word, but if someone accuses us of being weak or a weakling, it becomes laden with power. Some of the words most barren of power are almost painful to say and to hear: can't, ugly, poor, sick, die, dead, addict, sad, mad, grieve, without, agony, lack, pity, regret, miss, unhappy, fault, blame, etc. So, if you want to drive people away from you, all you have to do is talk about subjects where you can use these words or their variations frequently.

At this point you are probably realizing that the power and the powerlessness of words is recognized by vocal changes of pitch and tone. Power words are spoken positively, and with assertiveness. Powerful words are thrilling and upbeat in tone. On the other hand, words deficient in power lack forcefulness and take on a whiny, self-pitying bitterness.

Positive words are powerful words, and the more positive our word choices, the more the creative spiritual power of our words "rubs off" on or permeates our attitudes and our actions. If you want a powerful lesson in the power of words, read the words of Jesus! His words reveal the power of His soul...and they point to a powerful YOU!

Poet's Porch:

The Call To Being

O the indwelling of the Spirit of light Divine –
Unfold from within and expand without.
I will open my consciousness to the sublime –
No longer will I remain closed and in doubt.

How could I with your presence within –
Filled with truth – endowed with the light –
have been ignorant of you, the purest friend –
My only source of energy, power and might.

Of my perfection in creation I knew not.
Of my connection to the Absolute – unaware.
Then the Lamb, the innocent one God begot –
Came to break the seals – only he would dare.

I can and do live the life of a spirit with a body.
Not a body with a soul but a powerful composite.
Not one separate from the whole, nor a parody –
But the light of Divine Self-expression He lit.

May harmony be found with the Laws Supreme.
Let understanding flow that I may know.
I take responsibility for this being that I dream –
Expanding my vessel so that I am able to grow.

May Consciousness fill the whole Being.
May the Inner man that is the true Self unfold –
In transcending time be complete and all seeing.
May fear at last be banished – I can be that bold.

No longer will I fail to recognize my true wealth.
No longer will I sit in judgment on my brother.
I know and believe in God and in the Self.
Neither is found without understanding the other.

Institute of Applied Metaphysics

3053 Dumbarton Road, Memphis, TN 38128, 901-358-2226, iamrenford@gmail.com

Visit www.IAM-COR.org to see the virtual campus of the Institute

The Institute was born in the information age, and the Internet is the primary vehicle for contact and distribution. It brings a simple message that connects the dots for those who are seriously on the path of personal development. Each of 13 Universal Laws relate to the other 12 and the power is in knowing this. Many organizations bring a wide variety of teachers and lessons to their membership and though they are good and beneficial, the connection escapes them. We cooperate and work with those who are open to cooperation.

The institute is clear about the differences between traditional education and knowledge that can be gained at the Institute. Students learn of the four fields of knowledge and what lies beyond what is traditionally available.

Being is in one. — There is oneness in Being.
God conceives oneness. — Man perceives duality.
Proper perspective reveals purpose. — Purpose brings greater perspective.
What one thinks — one creates.
Believing is in the knowing and — knowing in the believing.
When one sees abundance — one lives abundantly.
What one is attracted to — one attracts.
One relates to all — All is related to one.
One seeks balance. — Perfect justice finds one.
One goes within to know. — One unfolds to become.
One gives what one can give. — One receives only what one can receive.
One seeks for Self — Self is found in selflessness.
What one loves — one becomes.

The RBR Hosts program has developed into a fraternity of teachers, healers, creators and service oriented personalities. We have formerly been limited to two hours per day broadcast time with 12 shows per week. Of course this limited the number of Hosts, the genres and the audience we could reach. We think that those who are producing these shows and working to provide information and services to listeners worldwide are dedicated and the potential for an expanded network is present. This is a diverse group and each host has appeal for a segment of the listener base and may create their own listener base. While we may have differences in belief systems, skills and approaches to the public the core intent is to serve. We have a variety of backgrounds but as hosts we all want the same thing. We want successful shows with a good audience base and to share what we have come to know by interviewing service oriented guests.

Contact iamrenford@gmail.com for information regarding your participation in the Hosts Association. We will forward the Hosts Association Package.

Rev. Bernard Dozier, and Chris, check in from their secluded retirement-community home outside Ocala, FL. He reports that his online ministry, www.HolyQuestMinistries.com, is reaching a growing "Cyber-congregation" through his free weekly Bright Side commentary, his IAMPress-published book, Walking in the Light, and his Soul Springs Prayer Ministry. He thinks much of the growth is due to the cyber-community "liking" and "following" his quotes, which are as challenging as they are spiritually stimulating. Chris' artistry comes in handy every day as she turns his quotes into visually-rich posts to his "Bernard Dozier" accounts on Facebook and Instagram. Rev. Dozier and Chris may be contacted at rbdozier@icloud.com or rbdozier@HolyQuestMinistries.com

The Church of Revelation

This is an unusual church and not one you can join in the traditional sense. Membership is based on understanding what the church is all about. With the reading of The COR Document and completion of the questions, membership is automatic. With the completion of the first level of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics, ordination as a Minister Teacher is available. With completion of the second level, ordination as a Master Teacher is available. With completion of the third level, ordination as a Doctor Metaphysician is available. Nothing is held as more important than the individual, and there is no hierarchal structure other than the levels established by the completion of each degree of the Institute of Applied Metaphysics. There are no restrictions that would keep anyone from completing all three levels. www.IAM-COR.org

Identification, Verification, Observation and Meditation are the four pillars of COR and its purpose is to develop learning circles in which individuals may independently and jointly work on the process of Self-discovery. It is also to provide one-on-one assistance to those in the process of identifying and verifying the Universal Laws from their life experiences. Download The COR Document free and learn of The Seven Revelations.
